WORK EXPERIENCE

CNH Industrial NV

City: Torino | Country: Italy

[31/07/2022 – Current] Lead Internal Auditor

The role involves managing the audit team (typically 2–4 professionals). Responsibilities include team leadership, audit plan assessment, risk assessment development, adherence to audit plan deadlines, preparation of reports for top management, and evaluation and development of team members.

I assess the work performed by team members during audit projects based on the following criteria:

- Performance (quantitative evaluation): compliance with timelines, completeness and accuracy of working papers, work organization, and proficiency in the use of specialized software.
- Soft Skills (qualitative evaluation): teamwork, ability to conduct meetings and interviews clearly and concisely, performance under pressure, proactivity, sound judgment, and independence.

CNH Industrial NV

City: Torino | Country: Italy

[31/10/2019 – 30/07/2022] Internal Auditor Specialist

The role involves conducting various types of audits and internal controls for the company's legal entities worldwide, including:

• Manufacturing plant audits

• Legal compliance audits

• SOX audits

- Parts depot audits
- R&D audits
- Health & Safety (H&S) audits
- Purchasing audits
- Fraud investigations
- Whistleblowing investigations

The core competencies include verifying compliance with company standards and regulatory requirements; performing internal and external benchmarking to identify potential best practices; and conducting both qualitative and quantitative analyses. Qualitative analyses are performed through interviews, questionnaires, and on-site observations (with travel across Europe), while quantitative analyses involve managing reporting systems and processing information.
